MY BIGGEST PROJECT

Helomi   View Helomi live

- Helomi is a desktop web-based single-page fullstack chat app.
- It enables users to signup, login, find and add friends, send text messages and make peer-to-peer video calls with one another at real-time with the big help of web sockets.
- It also allows users to update their profile picture.
- I designed & built it alone with Figma, React, Redux, Node, Express, MongoDB, Socket.io and WebRTC.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Freelance Web Developer   Freelancer.com
Oct 2021 - now

- Wrote CSS and JavaScript code to implement a complex animation for a client's frontend project.
- Worked on a client's React project. Implemented an image crop functionality using the React easy crop library.

Fullstack Web Developer   D-GIFTED MINDS
Jan 2021 - now

- I single-handedly designed the UI/UX of their official website from scratch using Figma.
- I single-handedly developed the UI design into frontend code using HTML, CSS, Sass, JavaScript.
- I implemented the backend & database system using Node/Express, MongoDB.
- As an educational platform, the ease of their students' registration & access to their information on the website was improved.

Frontend Web Developer   ATA BILISM
Jul - Aug 2021

- Fixed some UI issues (like contrast, visibility, etc) on many of their clients' website.
- Designed their client's website with Figma and developed them with HTML, CSS, Sass, JavaScript.
- Refactored the frontend HTML/CSS code of some of their already existing client websites.

Programming Lab Assistant   EUL, LEFKE
Feb - Mar 2020

- When I was in 3rd year in the Univeristy, I was employed by my school to teach the Foundations of Programming course using the C programming language to 1st year students.
